CONSTITUTION OF THE INTER-NATIONAL BROTHERHOOD
WELFARE ASSOCIATION.

As revised by the Eight Annual Convention, held in Cleveland, Ohio, January 27 30, 1914

PREAMBLE.

Inherent in every man, beneath rags and dirt, behind bigotry and prejudice, clouded by "isms" and dogma, there is the good. To find this good—the Divine Spark—by tolerance and kindness, by patience and unselfish service, by education and justice, to achieve the Universal Brotherhood—the Co-operative Commonwealth; often by faltering steps and slow, but ever upward, to reach the Ideal—always, of necessity, through the practical—the International Brotherhood Welfare Association makes these its laws, and announces its purpose to govern itself thereby.
